

Lufal Series

2013 has brought to the market a new range of Patina Lighting innovative and ultra modern LED luminaires . The Patina Lufal luminaire is primarily intended for use in a commercial down-lighter environment, however its versatile design and styling can lend itself to almost any application where recessed lighting is required.

The slim and light weight fitting can incorporate an occupancy and daylight tracking sensor which can be programmed to suit its intended environment.

